

MESSAGE FROM THE HEAD

Dear Parents,

After careful consideration, we have decided to stop the morning temperature checks at the gate as the government guidelines say this is no longer required. Please could I remind you however to not send your child to school if they are displaying COVID-19 like symptoms. If you are unsure, please call the school for advice.

Cake and Tea with Mrs B

Last week, I invited Emma Shah (Head Girl), Neeya Patel (Deputy Head) and our librarian team lead by Rachel Silva and supported by Joshika Rufus and Anika Shah, to a little chat in my office to discuss ways in which we could develop these roles under the current COVID-19 restrictions. We had a great brainstorming session, fuelled by delicious cupcakes made by the Kitchen Staff! It was a pleasure to meet with these bright, articulate young ladies and I thought it would be a lovely idea to turn this into a weekly slot with all pupils: The idea of “Cake and Tea with Mrs B” was born!

This week, I was delighted to meet with our three House Captains: Kimi Shah (Gallileo) Raiyan Wahid (Newton) and Kaya Patel (Einstein). Again, we looked at ways we could best use the House Captains without bursting bubbles but also into creative ways of fundraising at HHS. The pupils made some very pertinent points and I look forward to seeing their posters around the school in the weeks to come.

Assemblies

Mrs Gada, our deputy Head Pastoral, lead assemblies this week, continuing the theme of kindness. Children discussed the beautiful idea of painting the world with the colours of kindness and came up with lovely ideas of what this would look like at HHS.

Quote of the Week:

“Every day this week is an opportunity for you to become a better you”

Student Council

The Student council met again this week. Tweaks to the menu were discussed as were some suggestions for improving out-door play during the COVID restrictions. The school is very grateful to all the representatives for their thoughtful contributions to the meetings and their mature approach to the discussions.
